Constitution

ARTICLE

This Association shall be called THE SATURDAY CLUB OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA.

ARTICLE II

It shall comprise within its objects study, conversation, the writing and reading of essays, and such other exercises as shall, from time to time, be agreed upon for the mutual improvement of the members.

ARTICLE III

The officers of the Club shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and a Program Committee of three, all of whom, except the Program Committee, shall be elected annually by ballot at the last meeting in May. The Program Committee shall be elected annually by ballot at the last meeting in March.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION 1. The membership shall be limited to twenty active, ten associate and five honorary members. Two-thirds of the active members of the Club shall constitute a quorum for the election of candidates for membership. Names of candidates for membership shall be proposed in writing and shall be read by the Secretary at a regular meeting, and shall be voted upon at the next regular meeting thereafter at which is present the required quorum. Two adverse votes shall reject a candidate, and a rejected candidate shall not be eligible to membership for six months thereafter.

SEC. 2. An annual fee of two dollars shall be paid by each member.

ARTICLE V

Failure on the part of any member to pay the annual fee within one month from the beginning of the Club year, or failure to appear at three consecutive meetings without good excuse will be considered by the Club as a desire on the part of said member to withdraw from the Club.

ARTICLE VI

This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided the proposed amendment shall have been read at the previous regular meeting.

By-Laws

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1. The President shall preside over the meetings, preserve order, call special meetings by request of three members, and perform such other duties as custom and parliamentary usage shall require.

SEC. 2. The Vice President shall assist the President in the performance of her duties, and in her absence, shall preside over meetings.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep a correct record of all meetings, noting present and absent members, conduct and report the correspondence of the Club, preserve all important Club papers and documents; by letter, notify members of their election, keep a correct list of members, with their addresses and notify all members of special meetings.

The records and correspondence shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Club.

The Secretary shall also act as Treasurer; receive, collect and hold all Club money, and pay out the same subject to the order of the Club; keep a correct account in detail of all money received and expended by her, and shall render a report thereof in writing at the last meeting in May.

SEC. 4. The Program Committee shall prepare and have printed, by the first of October, programs showing the special work of each member on the subjects of study selected by the Club.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1. No member shall present the names of more than two candidates for membership during the Club year.

Candidates shall be voted upon with balls or other tokens. All business relating to candidates shall be strictly private.

SEC. 2. Any active member of one year's standing may become an associate member, by vote of the Club. Any associate member may attend the regular meetings of the Club, but may not vote. She shall attend at least one regular meeting, or communicate with the Club once a year by letter or paper. If resident she shall pay the yearly fee. She may resume her active membership at any time by vote of the Club.

SEC. 3. An honorary member may attend the regular meetings, take part in the literary discussions, but shall not vote. She may become an active member, provided a vacancy exists, by vote of the Club.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1. The Club year shall begin with the second Monday in October and end not later than the second Monday in May.

SEC. 2. The regular meetings shall be held fortnightly, beginning the second Monday in October, omitting the last meeting in December.

ARTICLE IV

Business in the regular meetings, except at the meeting designated for the election of officers, shall not occupy more than half an hour.

Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business not otherwise provided for.

ARTICLE V

Members have the privilege of inviting visitors to any meeting of the Club, provided said visitors are not residents of the city.

611109

ARTICLE VI

The By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting by a majority vote of the members, provided said proposed amendments shall have been read at the previous regular meeting.

ARTICLE VII

Roberts Rules of Order are the recognized parliamentary authority on all questions not covered by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Club.

Standing Rules

The regular meetings shall begin at two-thirty o'clock and continue not later than five o'clock.
